

NEWS RELEASE

Air Mauritius centralises its ticketing activities

Air Mauritius will centralise all its ticketing activities at its head office, Paille-en-Queue Court, Port-Louis, as from Monday 30 March 2009.

In this context, the ticket Counter situated at Rogers House, Port-Louis will no more be operational.

More Counters will be at the disposal of customers at the ticketing office located on the ground floor of the Paille-en-Queue Court. Moreover, a new business centre will be operational on the second floor of the Paille-en-Queue Court for dedicated services to corporate customers.

"Air Mauritius is streamlining its services for a better service to its customers. They can also visit our newly opened Sales Counter at Ebène Cyber Tower 1 and the one operational at Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam International Airport. Air Mauritius wants to be closer to its customers for a dedicated service to them", states Donald E. Payen, acting Executive Vice-President Sales and Distribution.

26 March 2009

Air Mauritius is the national carrier of the Republic of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean. Created in 1967, it currently operates a fleet of five A340-300, two A340-300E, two A319-100, one A330-200 and two ATR72-500. Air Mauritius presently flies to twenty-four destinations in Europe, Asia, Australia, Africa and the Indian Ocean.